Dear Tribal Leaders and Friends of Indian Country,

We write today to ask for your financial assistance to achieve equal access for our Tribal members to the ballot box for the 2016 federal and state general election in Nevada.

We are working with Oliver Semans (enrolled Rosebud Sioux Tribe) and Bret Healy of Four Directions Inc. and Tom Rodgers (enrolled Blackfeet Nation) of Carlyle Consulting to fight for voting equality for our Tribal Members. These gentlemen have worked with Tribes in Montana, South Dakota, and Minnesota to open satellite voting offices on American Indian Reservations and have expertise in this area. They also worked with us in 2010 on Nevada Indian Reservations and the urban Indian population in Las Vegas to register and get-out-the-Native-vote. Their contact information follows:

Oliver Semans (cell 605-828-1422) tateota@hotmail.com

Bret Healy (cell 605-216-1825) brethealysd@gmail.com

Tom Rodgers (cell 703-980-4595) tom@carlyleconsult.com

Please know that these gentlemen have our full confidence. We ask that you consider financially supporting our voting rights and get-out-the-Native-vote efforts by contributing to Four Directions, Inc.

Our Tribal members do not have equal access to the ballot box. We need your financial assistance to improve access and empowerment for our people.

Thank you in advance for considering our request.

Respectfully,

Vinton Hawley

President, Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada
Chairman, Pyramid Lake Paiute Tribe
